TRYBUZZCALL · BUZZCALL FOR BRAIDERS

The client who called mid-braid gets texted back and booked, with a deposit, before you finish the row.

Local · Atlanta

For Atlanta braiders and loctitians, including home studios. When your hands are in someone's hair, BuzzCall texts the missed caller, books the style, and collects a deposit for you.

Your hands are busy. Your phone keeps ringing.

A knotless set or box braids can keep you in the chair for hours. A new client calls, you can't pick up, and they try the next stylist. BuzzCall texts them back in seconds, asks which style they want, offers times that fit how long it takes, and holds the time while they pay a $50 deposit toward their service.

Done for you. Plain text messages.
No app for your clients and no dashboard for you. Texts to clients come from a local BuzzCall number, not your personal number. We do the setup and the carrier texting registration (A2P 10DLC). Use Booksy, StyleSeat or GlossGenius? We can add your link.

How it works

4 steps, all by text

1
Missed call → text
A warm text in your name, within seconds of the missed call.

2
Name + style
They pick from your menu (knotless, box braids, retwist, twists) and can add size and length.

3
Day + time + $50
They pick a day and 1 of 3 start times that fit the style, held while they pay a $50 Stripe deposit.

4
BOOKED + PAID
You get a text with name, style, time, deposit and notes.

Why it fits a braiding business

- ✓ Deposit up front: $50 down, credited toward the service.
- ✓ Times that fit the style: a 6-hour knotless set only gets offered where 6 hours are open.
- ✓ No double-booking: held and booked times aren't offered again.
- ✓ Your menu, your hours: set your styles, how long each takes, your days (Saturdays too).
- ✓ They can still talk to you: clients can reply "call" and you get a callback note.
- ✓ A local person to call: we set it up with you, here in Atlanta.
